

MEDI-CAL ASSET RULES ARE CHANGING

Effective January 1, 2026

ASSET LIMITS ARE RETURNING!

Beginning January 1, 2026, Medi-Cal will again require asset information for individuals who are:

- 65 and older;
- have a disability (physical, mental, or developmental);
- live in a nursing home;
- are in a household that may be above certain income limits under federal rules.

The asset limit is $130, 000 for one person and $65, 000 for each additional household member, up to 10 members.

KEEP YOUR BENEFITS

- If you already have Medi-Cal, you do not need to do anything unless you get a renewal form or request for information from our office. Provide all information timely.
